But if you leave our Resort to enjoy the rest of Cancun and its surroundings, this Top Ten guide will help you find the activities and events that will make your stay memorable. Some attractions may have bigger crowds, so be sure to check.

Xel-Ha

Considered one of the most important natural wonders of Mexico, Xel Ha's rich underwater life and lush jungle are complemented with unforgettable activities, world-class service, and constant commitment to nature and social development. Billed as the world's largest natural aquarium, Xel Ha is a collection of inlets, lagoons, sinkholes and caves where visitors can snorkel, swim, lie in the sun, take a stroll or discover the other charms of what was once a recreational area of the ancients.

Isla Mujeres

An appealing isle near Cancun, Isla Mujeres has three astonishing beaches, including the popular Playa de los Cocos. With calm and cool waters, the fishing, snorkeling and diving near the longest reef in the hemisphere are unforgettable. Rent water toys, kayaks, snorkeling gear, lounge chairs and beach umbrellas for a perfect day.

Whale Shark Swimming

Just a few minutes away from Cancun's beaches, an unforgettable experience awaits you. From May through September, visitors can swim side by side with the largest fish in the sea. Imagine the exhilaration of snorkeling with an eighteen meter long sea mammoth near the second largest reef in the world!

Tulum

Located on 12 meter cliffs with incomparable views of turquoise Caribbean waters, Tulum is one of the most visited Mayan ruins near the sea. Filled with energy and diving, camping, kiting, snorkeling, sun bathing, biking and many other water and land sports, the ancient city is a place known for renewal and exploring Mother Nature.

Xcaret

An ecologic "must do", Xcaret is a fantastic eco-park by the sea featuring unique activities where visitors discover the natural and cultural richness of Mexico and the Quintana Roo Peninsula. Snorkel on a reef, swim with dolphins, and dive into a heavenly inlet - in Xcaret you will find a natural paradise. www.xcaret.com

Cozumel

Known as the land of Swallows and the diving capital of Mexico, Cozumel is the third biggest Island in Mexico. Cozumel has 35 archeological sites, white sand beaches, a populated city filled with boutiques and a low key atmosphere that tourists and locals fall in love with. Cozumel can be reached by taxi, bus or ferry

Cancun Nightlife

Cancun is famous for its incomparable nightlife and parties, including live music in the hotel lounges to ravishing shows at the discotheques. Dance the night away with incredible acrobatic shows, lasers, live bands, bubble and foam parties, and much more at the CoCo Bongo Show and Disco. www.cocobongo.com.mx

Chichen Itza Ruins

The most impressive testimony to Mayan civilization on the Yucatan, Chichen Itza features miles of archeological ruins and one of the Seven Wonders of the World, the colossal Pyramid of Kukulcan. Chichen Itza is truly a "must see". Located in the state of Yucatan, between Merida and Valladolid.

Xplor

Visit the newest adventure ecologic park in Cancun and ride long zip lines, climb amazing suspension bridges, drive amphibious vehicles, raft, hike or just enjoying nature's best. Xplor is an underground world that invites you to rediscover yourself and nature. www.xplor.travel/ Federal Highway 307 km 282 Solidaridad

Cenotes

Sheltered inlets with subterranean water caves or sinkholes that are all around the Yucatan Peninsula and the Quintana Roo State, Cenotes are perfect for snorkeling, diving and exploring the untouched mineral water. Enjoy the freedom and scenery of nature like in no other place
