

Dulang

Authentic Balinese Dining

7:00 PM to 10:00 PM

Embark on a traditional Balinese journey in the enchanting colonial setting of Dulang, amidst tropical gardens, featuring dozens of herbs and spices.

Dulang's menu is inspired by the very best of Balinese cuisine and served in a traditional style.

Sit back and relax while listening to Rindik and watch our talented dancers perform traditional Balinese dances.

Start your evening with a Balinese greeting, followed by a traditional handwashing ritual, that cleanses the body and mind prior to consuming the meal.

Enjoy Loloh as your welcome drink, followed by a wide array of sambal choices from our sambal trolley, served alongside home-cooked crackers.

Enjoy your main course served on a traditional style dulang or namely a "Royal Plate" and end the evening with a Balinese dessert accompanied by the island's famous Kopi Luwak.

Loloh Cemcem

“Loloh” in Balinese or “Jamu” in Indonesian is one of Bali’s herbal drink.

Famous from Penglipuran village in Bangli regency, this iconic drink is made from “Cemcem” leaves blended with young coconut water, fresh tamarind, sea salt and palm nectarine.

Loloh Cemcem is believed to help lower blood pressure, digestion, and also good for nursing mothers.
